MOVING PEOPLE FROM Homelessness to Hope

Our guests helped bag sand bags.

Pat obtained his driver's license.

Dan received a donated vehicle.

Casey was able to reunite with her son.

Natasha welcomed a new baby into the family while in our programming.

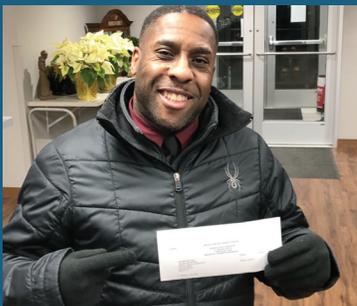

Nichole moved into her own place with her sons.

Our guests learning to give back by volunteering at the Banquet during the pandemic

YOUR SUPPORT = GUEST SUCCESS

Through generous financial gifts we are able to help our guests move from struggling to becoming successful. Each year we are able to celebrate so many personal and professional achievements that are made possible through outside support.

Jay being able to pay off all of his restitution

Daughton, William, & Derrick were released from parole and are no longer on supervision.

Vince having a place to stay and the vehicle which was donated to him by one of our donors

Amanda reunited with her children in their new home

Angel being able to graduate from high school and will walk with his class in the spring

Myron being able to share his amazing beading work with others

Most importantly you give them HOPE!
